UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA INDIANAPOLIS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
)
Plaintiff,)
)	TO A VALOUE TO LET
VS.)	Cause No. 1:13-cr-104-WTL-DKL
)	0.4
REGINALD T. WALTON and)	-01
DAVID JOHNSON,)	-0
)
Defendants.)

VERDICT FORM

COUNT ONE: Honest Services Wire Fraud

With respect to Count One of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant REGINALD WALTON of devising a scheme intended to deprive the citizens of the City of Indianapolis and the government of the City of Indianapolis of their right to the honest and faithful services of Reginald Walton and John Hawkins through bribery and kickbacks, which included, on or about October 21, 2012, the transmission of an e-mail sent by Reginald Walton to Jay Foreman, we, the jury, find Defendant REGINALD WALTON:

NOT GUILTY	GUILTY_X
------------	----------

With respect to Count One of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant DAVID JOHNSON of devising a scheme intended to deprive the citizens of the City of Indianapolis and the government of the City of Indianapolis of their right to the honest and faithful services of Reginald Walton and John Hawkins through bribery and kickbacks, which included, on or about October 21, 2012, the transmission of an e-mail sent by Reginald Walton to Jay Foreman, we, the jury, find Defendant DAVID JOHNSON:

GUILTY GUILTY_	X
CHILTY GUILLY

COUNT TWO: Honest Services Wire Fraud

With respect to Count Two of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant
REGINALD WALTON of devising a scheme intended to deprive the citizens of the City of Indianapolis and the government of the City of Indianapolis of their right to the honest and faithful services of Reginald Walton and John Hawkins through bribery and kickbacks, which included, on or about April 3, 2013, a communication via text message by Reginald Walton to John Hawkins, we, the jury, find Defendant REGINALD WALTON :
John Hawkins, we, the Jury, find Defendant RESTATES WILL STATES

included, on or about April 3, 2013, a communication via text message by Reginald Walton to John Hawkins, we, the jury, find Defendant REGINALD WALTON :
NOT GUILTY GUILTY
With respect to Count Two of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant DAVID JOHNSON of devising a scheme intended to deprive the citizens of the City of Indianapolis and the government of the City of Indianapolis of their right to the honest and faithful services of Reginald Walton and John Hawkins through bribery and kickbacks, which included, on or about April 3, 2013, a communication via text message by Reginald Walton to John Hawkins, we, the jury, find Defendant DAVID JOHNSON :
NOT GUILTY GUILTY
COUNT THREE: Honest Services Wire Fraud
With respect to Count Three of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant REGINALD WALTON of devising a scheme intended to deprive the citizens of the City of Indianapolis and the government of the City of Indianapolis of their right to the honest and faithful services of Reginald Walton and John Hawkins through bribery and kickbacks, which included, on or about April 3, 2013, a communication via cellular telephone between Reginald Walton and Aaron Reed, we, the jury, find Defendant REGINALD WALTON :
NOT GUILTY GUILTY
With respect to Count Three of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant DAVID JOHNSON of devising a scheme intended to deprive the citizens of the City of Indianapolis and the government of the City of Indianapolis of their right to the honest and faithful services of Reginald Walton and John Hawkins through bribery and kickbacks, which included, on or about April 3, 2013, a communication via cellular telephone between Reginald Walton and Aaron Reed, we, the jury, find Defendant DAVID JOHNSON : NOT GUILTY GUILTY

COUNT FOUR: Honest Services Wire Fraud

With respect to Count Four of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant
REGINALD WALTON of devising a scheme intended to deprive the citizens of the City of Indianapolis and the government of the City of Indianapolis of their right to the honest and faithful services of Reginald Walton and John Hawkins through bribery and kickbacks, which included, on or about April 1, 2013, the depositing of a check by Randall Sargent, we, the jury, find Defendant REGINALD WALTON:
IIII Delelialit Regitale with the

REGINALD WALTON of devising a scheme intended Indianapolis and the government of the City of Indianap faithful services of Reginald Walton and John Hawkins included, on or about April 1, 2013, the depositing of a find Defendant REGINALD WALTON :	oolis of their right to the honest and through bribery and kickbacks, which
NOT GUILTY	GUILTY
With respect to Count Four of the Superseding I DAVID JOHNSON of devising a scheme intended to de Indianapolis and the government of the City of Indianap faithful services of Reginald Walton and John Hawkins included, on or about April 1, 2013, the depositing of a find Defendant DAVID JOHNSON : NOT GUILTY	eprive the citizens of the City of polis of their right to the honest and through bribery and kickbacks, which check by Randall Sargent, we, the jury,
NOT GUILTYX	GUILTY
COUNT FIVE: Wir	re Fraud
With respect to Count Five of the Superseding I REGINALD WALTON and DAVID JOHNSON of de- using Walton's official position to enrich themselves by	vising a scheme and artifice to defraud by
estate sold by the Land Bank to victims of a separate re among each other, we, the jury, find Defendant REGIN	eal estate fraud and dividing the proceeds
estate sold by the Land Bank to victims of a separate re	eal estate fraud and dividing the proceeds
estate sold by the Land Bank to victims of a separate re among each other, we, the jury, find Defendant REGIN	Indictment, which charges Defendant vising a scheme and artifice to defraud by corruptly inflating the price of real eal estate fraud and dividing the proceeds

COUNT SIX: Bribery

With respect to Count Six of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant REGINALD WALTON with corruptly accepting $500 from Jay Foreman to influence and reward Walton's use of his official position to cause the transfer of at least ten parcels of real estate from the City of Indianapolis to Jay Foreman, we, the jury, find Defendant REGINALD WALTON:

NOT GUILTY _____ GUILTY____

COUNT EIGHT: Bribery

With respect to Count Eight of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant REGINALD WALTON with corruptly accepting approximately $7,500 from Aaron Reed to influence and reward Walton's use of his official position to cause the transfer of real estate located at 3959 Carrolton Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana, from the City of Indianapolis to IMAC and then to a for-profit entity which paid approximately $17,500 for the real estate, we, the jury, find Defendant REGINALD WALTON:

NOT GUILTY ____ GUILTY ____

COUNT TEN: Bribery

With respect to Count Ten of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendant REGINALD WALTON with corruptly accepting an unknown amount of money from Randall Sargent to influence and reward Walton's use of his official position to cause the transfer of five parcels of land to New Day Residential Development, Inc. for approximately $12,500, we, the jury, find Defendant REGINALD WALTON:

NOT GUILTY ____ GUILTY____

COUNT ELEVEN: Conspiracy to Engage in Monetary Transactions in Property Derived from Unlawful Activity

With respect to Count Eleven of the Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendants REGINALD WALTON and DAVID JOHNSON with knowingly conspiring together to transfer $14,000 to Aaron Reed from the proceeds of the unlawful activity described in Counts One through Four of the Superseding Indictment, we, the jury, find Defendant REGINALD WALTON:

NOT GUILTY	GUILTYX
REGINALD WALTON and DAVID JOHNS $14,000 to Aaron Reed from the proceeds of	Superseding Indictment, which charges Defendants SON with knowingly conspiring together to transfer the unlawful activity described in Counts One we, the jury, find Defendant DAVID JOHNSON : GUILTY
EOREPERSON	3/18/15 DATE